

LETTER FROM THE CEO

I would personally like to welcome you to the leading distribution portfolio in packaging flexible film products. Until you have the chance to speak with us in person, this website will provide you with a glimpse of the markets we serve and our capabilities.

Impex Global has undergone a transformation over the last few years. LaSalle Investment Management acquired Impex Global in 2012 and I was brought onboard in 2014 to manage this transformation and day to day operations. My experience includes over 30 years' in the industry with a dedication to building trustworthy relationships with our customers and suppliers.

Perhaps you are wondering how this change will affect you — our valued customer.

Our transformed corporate culture is one of dedication, respect, and continuous improvement. Our success is measured by our customers' successes. At Impex Global, we back up that claim with a commitment detailing specific areas of responsibility to ensure that goal is met each and every time. It is the internal means of following through with external results that enable us to exceed the expectations of our customers.

We can utilize manufacturing partners to provide global solutions in delivering quality and consistent products to our customers.

In addition, we have established new objectives for Impex Global: to be a solution that provides custom converting and a total logistics service for our customers. We will work hand-in-hand with our customers to help them meet and exceed their key objectives. We believe we're an extension of our customer's supply chain, and as such, we will provide whatever service it takes to establish a successful business relationship that is unsurpassed to ensure our customer's goals are realized.

Being customer centric, delivering outstanding customer satisfaction and service, meeting our commitments with integrity, and fostering teamwork in everything we do are just a few key principles we've established at Impex Global. I am extremely proud of our people and the services they provide. Let us show you what makes me so proud. Feel free to explore our website and please do not hesitate to Ask Us.

Thank you for allowing Impex Global, LLC to be your trusted partner.
